

Seeding Dallas II: Good Food for the City

November 11, 2017

8:30AM – 1:30PM (check-in 8:00)

Owenwood Farm & Neighbor Space, 1451 John West Rd., Dallas 75228

Register at <http://grownorthtexas.org/event-2685985>

Seeding Dallas II* is an opportunity to dig deep into topics covering a wide range of garden interests and skills. Local experts will share what they've learned growing food, managing gardens and selling at markets in North Texas.

3 Learning Tracks:

Growing a Garden

Topics – Growing Calendar, Siting and Soil, Container Vegetables, Composting

Community Garden Management

Topics – Community Assessment, Funding, Garden Leadership, Resources

Market Gardening

Topics - Harvesting & Selling, Diversity & Niche Market Crops, USDA Programs for Small Market Gardens, Budgeting and Pricing

Who Should Attend?

Gardeners and Urban Farmers of All Types, Community Garden Managers, Growers who might want to sell, Farm/Garden supporters, Anyone thinking about starting a garden for community invigoration or enhancement

Limited Scholarships are available.

For more info, wyonella_henderson-greene@baylor.edu or 214-951-7780

